

Ottawa, Week by Week

Grave Issue for Government

It is known that the seesaw along Parliament Hill, that the wage increases were attributable to railway workers was attributable to the steadily rising cost of living in Canada, but this was in reality only one of the other echoes heard here as a result of the general growing outcry across the country against the continuous upward movement of living costs, with hints even whispered that recent by-election setbacks suffered by the government, and other uncounted developments, being now more and more traceable to the feelings in the country on such a note.

With this in mind, veteran observers now hold that something concrete will be done by the government, to help keep the price pressures under some sort of control. The latest move for the appointment of a Royal Commission, to continue the price probe started by a special committee of the House of Commons and its Senate counterpart, is interpreted here that this body will be a sort of "watchdog" on price movements, investigating any inflation, but the cost of living index in the country, where such inquiries are warranted. It could look into foodstuffs, both raw and finished, textiles, etc., and so on.

Ministers in Ottawa

Though Parliament is not in session now, yet members of the cabinet in many cases appear to be obliged this summer, either to attend to business in the cabinet meetings, to remain in or near this capital, including ministerial duties, or nearly King's. Others who have been busy here and observed to be in the capital, are Postmaster General, External Affairs Minister St. Laurent, Agriculture Minister Gardiner, Labor Minister Mitchell, Finance Minister Bennett and others. Work rather than vacation, seems to be the order of the day for many of them.

Said in the Capital

"The hope of future peace lies not in what the Soviet Union says about us, but in what the United States does to the welfare of its own people, and its work with other nations in the welfare of all," said Defence Minister Lester Pearson.

"Between the rising costs of food, clothing, and fuel to heat our homes, I figure that by $1 a week, or about 58 cents' worth of goods," declared Geo. Barker, father of 17 children and who is in the capital on earnings of $184 a month.

"The Board feels that it would be in the public interest for the CBC to broadcast some speeches from those national conventions which are of outstanding importance, because they are called by the country's new national party leaders," remarked A. D. Duntun, CBC chairman, indicating it has been decided to broadcast the main proceedings of the national Liberal convention here next month.

"I don't feel that war is an immediate problem, but it is definitely a problem of the next 10 or 15 years if we do not seek understanding," said C.P. leader M. J. Goldwell, in an address here.

"In Canada, our films are being seen non-theatrically by one million, and theatrically by two million people," disclosed here also, one of the National Film Board, reporting that "there were 200 film councils and libraries across Canada."

Progress of Communism in any section of the world affects the safety of the whole," stressed here, when the distinguished visitor being recognized as one of China's most powerful right wing leaders.

British Columbia Adds Another Attraction

For the United States visitor who now may purchase up to $400 in value of Canadian goods, the province of British Columbia has added another attraction to the delights offered the tourist for a season in that province.

On July 1st, there came into effect what is termed a "Social Security and Municipal Aid Tax" of three per cent on practically everything consumed or used from the cradle to the grave. There are a few exemptions, it is true. Bona fide farmers and fishermen get exemption on implements and material necessary in their business, and food products purchased from grocery and other stores in the province way also are free. For a while, there was confusion among buyers and sellers of house property—the Act mentions "tangible personal property" as taxable—and prospective purchasers of property, ranging in price up to $8,000 long in the confusion, struck for an extra $240. On Saturday morning, July 3, Room 125 in the Hotel Street view of the Court House, Vancouver, was busy unsnarling this and other more important questions, such as the voice of Canada, may be in these countries before it, it is hinted here.

Collapse of Agreement

The virtual collapse of the international wool agreement, which was foreseen as a possibility when the U.S. Congress did not ratify it before adjournment in June, is being interpreted here as not likely to lead to immediate effects of any drastic nature, but as resulting in fluctuations in the wool market with stories heard that another attempt at a new agreement may be made.

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

YOUNG AND OLD PUT PASTORS $5 "STAKES" TO WORK—$1,000 "talent money" in five-dollar bills handed out by Rev. Gordon Smyth to congregation members of the United Church in Hailu, Ont., was more than doubled to $2,070. Here Mrs. Smyth has some of the fund raised by talent efforts. Some choice logs like these floating downstream in front of church and minister's residence were bought and proceeds from lumber's sale turned into talent fund for church renovation. Scheme's objective was $3,000. Bids on family of Belle, Patricia Bishop, 14, who turned it in.

HIS NET $100,000 FIRE IN JAP SHIPYARD—Charles A. Clark, of Toronto, who set a million dollar fire in a Yokohama shipyard while a Japanese prisoner, claims he should have had more money for his work. Mr. Clark, a staff sergeant at Hong Kong, told the Commons committee on veterans affairs, he acted as spokesman for 1,000 survivors in asking that they be granted retroactively the same pay that was promised Canadians killed for Pacific service in 1943. The rates ranged from 30 cents a day higher for privates to $1 for officers of the rank of major and above. The force never got to the Pacific, but some of its members received the higher rates for service in the U.S. Clark, who won the D.C.M. for his saboteur, told reporters the fire was started in a shaving clinic with a makeshift candle made of grease. He said the Japanese never suspected the Canadians because the prisoners had been complaining for weeks about the habit of allowing Japanese and Korean workmen to build fire all over the yards to cook their rice.

"PAPER COW" IN OTTAWA BEEF PRICE PROTEST AMUSES CROWDS—Ottawa, Ont., housewife protesting rising beef prices brought chuckles from crowds in the capital's downtown section with the noise of their "paper cow," constructed by two unskilled civil servants. Mrs. Patricia Williams, president of the Ottawa Housewives' Consumers' association, dressed as a farmwife, led the parade. "Don't let the new jump over the moon," said a sign carried by a two-year-old red-headed boy.

The fire might have been started by spontaneous combustion. Buildings surrounding the fire were almost obliterated by the dense smoke clouds billowing up. Above is an aerial view of the blaze.

In Cuba, elections are sometimes fraught with considerable personal danger to the candidates. On the left is present president Ramon Grau San Martin who backed Price.
